NOAH'S ARK CHARITY

Ideas to get you started

Not sure how to go over and above?
Here are five ideas for each kind of challenge. Pick one, mix and match, or come up with your own.
The best ideas are the ones you think of yourself!

JUST YOU, AT SCHOOL

One small act of kindness for another pupil or a teacher.

ONE

Save a seat at lunch for someone sitting on their own.

TWO

Write a secret compliment note and leave it on a classmate's or teacher's desk.

THREE

Tidy up a mess that isn't yours, without being asked.

FOUR

Offer to help someone with a task or classroom chore.

FIVE

Hold the door open for a whole line of people.

Write what you did on a colourful strip and add it to your class chain.
Stay safe: always make sure a grown-up knows what you're doing and where you are.

YOU AND YOUR FAMILY, AT HOME

Something that goes over and above for a friend or family member.

ONE

Make breakfast in bed for someone you love.

TWO

Do a job that's usually someone else's, without being asked.

THREE

Make a thank-you card and deliver it to a neighbour.

FOUR

Help a younger brother, sister or cousin with something tricky.

FIVE

Call or visit a grandparent or relative who lives on their own.

Write what you did on a colourful strip and add it to your class chain.
Stay safe: always make sure a grown-up knows what you're doing and where you are.

YOU AND YOUR CLASS, TOGETHER

Something your whole class does as a team to support your school.

ONE

Make thank-you cards together for the lunchtime supervisors, caretaker or office staff, then deliver them as a class.

TWO

Work together to tidy and reorganise a shared space, like the book corner or PE cupboard.

THREE

Plan and run a welcome session for a new pupil or a younger class, with a job for everyone.

FOUR

Rehearse a poem or song together and perform it for another class or in assembly.

FIVE

Design a class poster or display for a school corridor, with every child adding a part.

Write what you did on a colourful strip and add it to your class chain.
Stay safe: always make sure a grown-up knows what you're doing and where you are.

YOUR WHOLE SCHOOL, TOGETHER

Something the whole school does to help the wider community.

ONE

Do a litter pick around the school grounds or local streets

TWO

Collect items for a local food bank, with one donation from every child.

THREE

Take a sponsored walk to a nearby landmark and add up the miles together.

FOUR

Make cards or comfort items for people at a local hospital or care home.

FIVE

Give a big thank-you cheer to local emergency services or community workers.

Write what you did on a colourful strip and add it to your class chain.
Stay safe: always make sure a grown-up knows what you're doing and where you are.
